Music Makes a Difference

- Eager Students
- + Nurturing Environments
- + Engaging Lessons
- = Lifelong Artists & Well-Rounded Citizens

Use this slide to discuss the importance of music program to your students. Specifically, you might mention that an effective program requires people, passion, and resources to be successful. You can speak to the people and passion you have in your school community, and express the need for quality resources. You might even add the # of students or school motto to make relevant!

Benefits of Online, Tech-Powered Teaching

Music Lessons have come a long way!

- Saves Valuable Teaching Time
- Students are More Engaged
- Countless Resources are Available
- Customization Options are Endless
- Parents Can Be Involved
- The Curriculum is Always Current

Use this slide to discuss the importance of digital music curriculum. Some members of the audience might not understand the huge shift to interactive lessons. Quaver is a web-based program that can be accessed from any browser and on all mobile devices. Mention how the interactive qualities of the Quaver Curriculum engage students and promote student participation, retention, and more. Feel free to use personal stories, video, or images to drive this home.

- Makes Teacher's Lives Easier - The lesson plans and resources are all online at the teacher's fingertips. Activity suggestions and ready-to-launch resources are just a click away! No books to carry or software to load. Each lesson is sequenced with resource screens that can easily be followed. The navigation is easy.
- Students are More Engaged. Tech-savvy students are naturally drawn to interactive lessons with modern animation and music. Whiteboards, projectors, or large flat screens can all be used to display highly visual, engaging activities. Multiple learning styles are accommodated by the visual, aural, and kinesthetic resources. Students can even use iPads or other mobile devices.
- Countless Resources are Available. Our online library supports hundreds of interactive teaching resources and music to supplement existing lessons. Quaver's Resource Manager can be used to search for specific resources and create folders to store favorite lessons. Resources can be imported

- from the Internet and used as well.
- Customization Options are Endless. Teachers can create their own custom lessons by rearranging pre-built lessons or importing outside resources to create new content from scratch. Resource creation screens can be used to create Powerpoint-like screens, record videos of student or teacher activity, create custom quizzes and rubrics, build checklists, and much more.
- Parents Can Be Involved. Student accounts can easily be created and assignments given. Parents can log into the student's account and monitor the progress that is being made. The teacher, student, and parent can send messages and communicate with one another through our platform.
- The Curriculum is Always Current. Our online resources are updated automatically four times a year. Content and functionality are always current. No downloads required! Any corrections are made immediately.

The QuaverMusic Solution

Use this slide to discuss introduce QuaverMusic as a solution that meets your needs. Quaver is more than just a textbook or a website - it's a complete solution including all 5 of these puzzle pieces.

The QuaverMusic Solution

The video provided on this slide is an excellent resource to introduce your audience to the multitude of ways that QuaverMusic is committed to meeting the needs of today's music educators. The video talks about the five elements listed on the slide before and is about 4 and ½ minutes long. Click Play to teach the audience about Quaver (this video is linked from YouTube so internet connection will be necessary).

One Mission | Enriching Lives Through Music Education

Use this slide to introduce the Quaver Team. We employ over 100 staff devoted to general music education, more than any other company in the world. You might mention that these staff include musicians, composers, graphic artists, audio and video engineers, software developers, content developers, pedagogical experts, and more. You might also mention that Quaver HQ is located in Nashville, Tennessee (Music City) on Music Row. Our location in Nashville gives us access to a pool of skilled musicians and vocalists, including a large pool of young vocal talent – critical in our program since we use authentic, age-appropriate voices and real instruments where appropriate.

Meet the Quaver Team!

If you have time, this video gives a behind-the-scenes look at Quaver HQ (this video is linked from YouTube so internet connection will be necessary). The video is about 2 and ½ minutes long.

Developing the Whole-Child

- Free Accounts for Every Student
- Social and Emotional Learning Emphasis
- Cross-Curricular Connections to Other Subjects

Use this slide to discuss how Quaver helps support a well-rounded education. The Every Student Succeeds Act now recognizes music as an important element of well-rounded education. Mention that aside from teaching music, the Quaver Curriculum has a variety of music-based social and emotional learning resources to help develop productive, successful citizens. With Quaver, students will also make cross-curricular connections, using music to become more literate in other subjects such as social studies, math, and beyond.

Help Me Invest in Our Students

- Annual License
- Training & Support
- Custom Data Integrations
- Community Benefits

Use this slide to make your request that the audience fund your annual QuaverMusic license. You might edit to show the price (get a quote from your rep) and even drive that home with a per student cost analogy. Is Quaver more than the price of a cup of coffee per student? Mention how it includes everything mentioned previously plus additional training for you as a teacher, custom data integrations (Dedicated team provides custom Quaver Learning Management System, Single Sign On options, and student rostering integration) and resources to engage the community in music (such as musicals!).
